Hey Friends!

Since it's the month of December, it often feels like things don't truly slow down until the week after Christmas. There seems to be a Christmas party or get together for every single group or function. As a parent or a student, I encourage to you to remember the reason we can party! Over the month of December, we are examining why Christmas is such good news for us as people through the study of different characters from Scripture. The incarnation of Jesus is such a big deal. The fact that the Messiah came down from Heaven, humbling Himself, to dwell among us, to die for us, and to rise again, is the reason that we celebrate. So as we hustle and bustle this Christmas season, may we continue to focus on the greatest gift this Christmas season: IMMANUEL! (God with us.)

Cheering you on!
